

Creative Salem Internship Fact Sheet April, 2016

About Creative Salem:

Creative Salem is the north shore's hub for all things creative. The Creative Salem team tirelessly tracks thousands of local creative events and broadcasts them through calendar listings, blog posts and reviews. As a platform for creative networking we provide an interactive relationship with artist and audience through our interactive bio pages and detailed blog posts.

About our internship program:

Creative Salem now has internship opportunities available. Creative Salem will offer a few positions within the social media and marketing field. This is an unpaid internship for class credit only. Interns will be working within the Creative Salem office located on 265 Essex Street in Salem, Mass. Our internship program runs for a three month period starting in June and ending in August. Upon assignment interns will be responsible for posting calendar listings, blog and social media posts. Options to go and review certain creative events will be accessible.
